Do they really sleep outside?

- Yes! This event is meant to be fun and educational. Though decorating a cardboard box for prizes is fun and exciting, the reality is that many people must use cardboard to shelter themselves from the elements, and without a year-round homeless shelter, Bozeman's homeless folks are forced to sleep outside—even when it's cold out. Cardboard Box City gives participants a chance to live in the shoes of someone who is without a home, and sleep as they would—outside.
